

MEDITATIONS FROM MARCH 2016 SUNDAY BULLETINS

ARE YOU LISTENING?

March 6, 2016

Rev. Maria Borrero

The power to choose gives us the freedom to live the life that our Father gave us from the beginning. No one can decide for us what we will accept as true and real. We make that choice. The Bible tells us that we must choose this day whom we will serve. Will it be the human consciousness or will we listen to the inner voice of the Christ Consciousness and choose our Heavenly Father whose love and blessings will always be ours?

Each day let us turn within quietly and listen. Let us turn within to know God and serve his will every moment of our existence, for God's Kingdom is already ours. Let us learn to stop before making a decision and listen carefully, Oh so carefully. And so it is. Amen.

THE PART WE PLAY

March 13, 2016

Rev. Janet Friedline

We have noticed that life does not always work out the way we thought it would. Life expresses as experience, taking form in a particular way. Now, some of what we experience is pleasant, while others, not so much. And we wonder if we have a part to play in what comes to us. Is it possible for our circumstances and conditions to conform to our idea of what should happen? Or is life a game of chance, appearing randomly without any rhyme or reason?

God created a universe of principle and order; one that includes us. We were given dominion to express according to our spiritual nature. God created a finished kingdom, and when we live in this kingdom, we express as his child. Our role is to be obedient to the divine idea planted in us. We are responsible for our thoughts, our actions and our deeds. Let us assume the role of the one who listens in an inward way. We have a part to play in God's plan for his creation, let us fulfill it.
